

ROUND 1

ROUND UP

In what is the most exciting and athletic division across the Big V, which teams jumped out of the blocks? With a competition that is wide-open, lets have a glance at round 1.

An ominous warning has been sent out that has resenated across the Big V landscape. DV's hunt for 3 in a row is on. The Eagles wiped the floor against arch rivals Eltham by, utilising their perfect offensive execution on their way to a 50 point win. Matt Reynolds was the main cog in the machine, dropping 25 points with plenty of help across the board.

At the same time on the other side of the bay, the Cats managed to stave off a pesky Hawthorn Magic squad, with the game coming down to the wire– Lachlan Headlam the hero with a game saving block. Rebula drilled 25 points but the man of the match was Cameron Lowe, almost recording a huge triple double– 16 points, 14 boards and 9 blocks.

The Broncos executed on offense down the stretch to knock over Bulleen away from home. At the end of the day the Boomers had no answer for Joel Bellman who helped himself to 31 points and 11 rebounds.

Zac Haig somehow managed to collect more points than he did minutes. 27 points in only 26:13 court time! So that equates to 41 points per 40 minutes he plays!

Sherbrooke gave the Melbourne Tigers a good shake at Oakleigh on Saturday night as well with new recruit Jason Kelly clearly the go-to-guy for the Suns in 2K11. 18 points and 13 rebounds wasn't enough to stop the depth of Melbourne who's most notable performer was big Craig Martin with 20 and 10.

The biggest surprise of the night was Ringwood beating down on the Falcons by 30 odd points. Deng Deng tried hard with 18 points, 11 boards and 4 swats, but they had no answers for Zac Haig– 27 points and 7 rebounds. He was well supported by Shaun Clarke and (16) and Callan Tate (18).

And in the last game of round 1, the Broncos went back to back wins after knocking off Altona 83-73, pushing them to top of the table early on with 2 wins and 0 losses.

Well that's it for the round 1 roundup, it looks like we have plenty more action ahead of us as the teams look to either re-group or keep riding the winning wave into round 2.
