

“A CALL FOR COACHES”

Melbourne Southern Seeks Head Basketball Coach

For the thousands of people with an intellectual disability in Victoria, sport is a way of celebrating and transforming their lives. In sport, every effort is rewarded with a smile and every journey is more momentous than any victory.

Special Olympics Victoria (SOV) provides ongoing sports training and competition for children and adults with an intellectual disability. Through the work of dedicated volunteers our programs are offered within 13 regions and in 14 sports across Victoria.

SOV seeks expressions of interest from individuals keen to join this not-for-profit organisation in various volunteering roles.

Suitably qualified persons are invited to apply for the volunteer position of Special Olympics Victoria, Melbourne Southern head basketball coach.

We are looking for someone with a Level 1 Coaching accreditation, a current Working with Children Check, has had previous coaching experience and that can bring enthusiasm, new ways of learning and skill development to our region.

(Please Note, If you do not already have a Level 1 Coaching Accreditation, and are interested in this position, Special Olympics Victoria will subsidise 50% of your coaching course costs.)

Training: Sundays 9:30AM – 11:00AM Venue: Chelsea Basketball Complex. Cannes Ave, Bonbeach (Melway 97, E4)

We invite you to discover what Special Olympics stands for, what the Victorian branch of this worldwide organisation hopes to achieve over the next few years and how you can be part of this very special movement.
