THE FUTURE

BY CHARLIE WANTI | ARTIST: EMMA MACNEILL

My Name is Emma MacNeill and I am a proud Yamatji Martu woman, born and raised in the heart of the Kimberley. My traditional family roots descend from the mighty Western desert, in central Western Australia. My Mother and Grandparents live on their Barnah (land) along the rabbit proof fence in a small town called Meekatharra. My Grandmother is one of the last traditional land owners of her time and my Grandfather is still to this day a traditional practicing Lore man.

It has been an absolute pleasure creating this years 2024 Waverley Falcons Indigenous uniform. I wanted to create a jersey that incorporates the connection between all teams represented and respectfully acknowledges the players and supporters who play a huge roll in building the Waverley Falcon Brand and what it stands for.

The three yellow circles on the front accompanied by three different "U" shaped symbols represent the Falcons Men's, Women's and youth squads, how they connect to each other and form pathways for their youth space to grow into. The green lines in the background represents your team spirit, your sportsmanship and the love for the game. In the background you'll also recognise dark coloured "U" shapes, these shapes represent your support network, the sponsors involved, volunteers and family members who support your players and the jerseys you wear. On the back of the jersey in a corner pocket there's connected yellow and white circles, This is your pathway from the youth space to the senior space. Like a protected zone the Falcons have ensured the youth space has and continues to develop young players who will eventually move into the senior space as leaders and players who uphold strong team values.

May you wear this jersey with pride and take a moment to acknowledge the person beside. Reflect on the bonds you have built and the land you are playing on.
